Are you a Naviance subscriber?

We complement Naviance and are happy to have you place our materials on your Naviance portal!

State Pages

Based on a suggestion from several of our schools, the state pages have been moved to our resource website (link below) instead of being in the back of the handbook. This enables you to access and/or download more than one state instead of just your own. You may still print them and add them to the handbook if you wish. This also enables us to update them more easily and to keep them current.

Note that the Adobe .pdf version of the handbook has been enhanced to contain bookmarks and active links, so it is perfect for placing on your website. You can jump throughout the handbook by clicking on a section in the Table of Contents, and the web links work as well. The state pages also contain active links. Your technical staff will know how to put the .pdf version on your website.

The Private Subscriber Link – Now Password Protected!

You are granted access to the non-public website at the location below. There you will find other materials such as worksheets and checklists, summer programs for high school students, planning calendars, etc. There are also helpful links to all states' university systems and over 600 other resources found on the internet. (these are on the "Consolidated Page of Helpful Links" near the top) Information will be updated on this site throughout the year so check back often! You must use this link, as you cannot get to this from our public website!

User name: 2010 Password: APPS (use all caps)

Last year's user name and password will continue to work until 12/31/10, but it is best to start using the new ones now. As a subscriber, you may reproduce this material for your current students, refer your students to this website, and/or you may wish to add this link to your own school website. (along with the User name and Password if you wish) For more information, see the new Subscriber and FAQ pages on our website (www.getin2college.com)

The Handbook

This letter serves to grant the following copyright permissions:

- 1) You may reproduce the 2010-2011 Academic Year Edition for your current 2010-2011 Sophomore OR Junior class. Note that you can reproduce it double sided (using front and back of the page) which saves cost.
- 2) You may edit the cover as you wish, including your school name and logo, providing our logo remains on the cover somewhere along with the Copyright information. Or send us your logo and we'll make a cover for you.
- 3) You may publish the 2010-2011 Handbook on your website. (Your school website administrator will know how to do this using the Adobe .pdf file)
- 4) You may add our state pages and/or your own school-specific pages to the appendix if you wish.
- 5) You may append advertising pages and sell ad space to offset costs. However, we trust that the school will take responsibility for the appropriateness of ads.

Our Newsletter "The Edge"

Our newsletter is now published on the private link above. There you may access back issues as well. New issues will appear mid January, April and October and in summer as material warrants.

If there is something else you would like to do, not covered above, please email us and we will hope to provide you with whatever permission you are seeking.

Please let us know if we can be of any further assistance. We would like to know how our products are received and any feedback would be greatly appreciated. We would like your suggestions for the next edition!

Mini-Manuals and Powerpoints

We noticed that you did not order our Mini-Manuals and PowerPoint add-on. ($119 per year) If you'd like to reconsider, visit the preview at www.getin2college.com/MMPreview.html. You can simply send us a PO or credit card for the additional $119 and we'll send you the password right away.
